

Suggested Code of Conduct for Parents and Carers

As a parent/carer of a child enrolled in a school operated by Seventh-day Adventist Schools (South Queensland) Ltd, I agree that:

- I will respect the rights, dignity and worth of every person, regardless of their abilities, gender, religion or cultural background.
- I will respect the decisions of the school and teach my children to do likewise
- I will focus on and encourage my children's efforts and performance
- I will support all efforts to prevent any form of abuse in the school and encourage a safe and supportive learning environment
- I will raise any issues or concerns quietly and calmly, in private with staff
- I will support the values and standards promoted by the Seventh-day Adventist Church
- I will not treat any student or adult in an unfair, unjust, or discriminatory manner
- I will not smoke on the school premises
- I will not bring alcohol or illicit substances onto the school premises
- I will not use bad language including profanity or swearing of any kind while on the school premises or at a program or activity provided by the school
- I will not raise issues or problems with other people's children or parents/carers of other children
- I will not raise my voice, except for the purpose of being heard, while communicating with any staff member.
