1. PURPOSE OF THE POLICY
The purpose of this policy is to provide written processes about the appropriate conduct of Seventh-day Adventist Schools (South Queensland) Ltd staff and students that accord with legislation applying in Queensland about the care and protection of children.

1.1 Scope

Applies to all staff, volunteers, and students at schools operated by Seventh-day Adventist Schools (South Queensland) Ltd and covers information about the reporting of inappropriate behaviour of a staff member, harm or suspected harm of a student by any other person and sexual abuse, suspected sexual abuse and likely sexual abuse of a student by any other person.

1.2 Responsibility

Board of Directors Seventh-day Adventist Schools (South Queensland) Ltd.

1.3 Point of Contact

Principal or Education Director

2. DEFINITIONS AND LEGISLATION

“Harm”, caused to a student under 18 years, is any detrimental effect of a significant nature on the student’s physical, psychological or emotional wellbeing.

(1) It is immaterial how the harm is caused.

(2) Harm can be caused by—

(a) physical, psychological or emotional abuse or neglect; or
(b) sexual abuse or exploitation

Sexual abuse, in relation to a relevant person, includes sexual behaviour involving the relevant person and another person in the following circumstances –

(a) the other person bribes, coerces, exploits, threatens or is violent toward the relevant person;
(b) the relevant person has less power than the other person;
there is a significant disparity between the relevant person and the other person in intellectual capacity or maturity

2.1 Relevant Legislation

3. POLICY

3.1 Statement of Commitment
Seventh-day Adventist Schools (South Queensland) Ltd is committed to ensuring the safety, welfare and wellbeing of children is maintained at all times during their participation in learning and other activities run by all schools operated by Seventh-day Adventist Schools (South Queensland) Ltd.

3.2 Health and Safety
The school will protect students from harm as far as it is reasonably able. The safety, wellbeing and best interests of our students are of primary importance. The school will ensure the health and safety of staff in accordance with work health and safety legislation.

3.3 Conduct of Staff and Students
All staff, contractors and volunteers must ensure that their behaviour towards and relationships with students reflect proper standards of care for students. Staff, contractors and volunteers must not cause harm to students.
The school will ensure that staff and volunteers have a positive notice (“blue card”) as required by the Commission for Children and Young People and Child Guardian Act 2000 or that they are registered teachers.

3.4 Inappropriate Behaviour
If a student considers the behaviour of a staff member to be inappropriate, the student should report the behaviour to:-
(a) the Principal or
(b) The Chaplain or any other staff member.

3.5 Dealing with Information about Sexual Abuse, Harm & any other Inappropriate Behaviour
A staff member who receives a report of inappropriate behaviour about another staff member that the student considers inappropriate, the staff member receiving the report must immediately report it in writing to the Principal. Where the Principal is the subject of the report of inappropriate behaviour, the staff member must provide the written report to the Chief Executive Officer Seventh-day Adventist Schools (South Queensland) Ltd. If the Chief Executive Officer is unavailable, the report must be provided to the Chairman of the Board of Directors, the Secretary of the Board of Directors or the Chief Financial Officer of the Company.
For further information on reporting processes, refer to SQS025.001.ADM Policy and Procedures for Handling Disclosures or Suspicions of Harm and Reporting Procedures.

3.6 Reporting Sexual Abuse under Education (General Provisions) Act 2006

Section 366 of the Education (General Provisions) Act 2006 states that if a staff member becomes aware, or reasonably suspects in the course of their employment at the school, that any of the following has been sexually abused by another person:-

(a) a student under 18 years attending the school;
(b) a pre-preparatory aged child registered in a pre-preparatory learning program at the school;
(c) a person with a disability who:-
   (i) under s.420(2) of the Education (General Provisions) Act 2006 is being provided with special education at the school; and then the staff member must give a written report about the abuse or suspected abuse to the school’s principal or to a director of the school’s governing body immediately.
   (ii) is not enrolled in the preparatory year at the school.

If the staff member who becomes aware or reasonably suspects sexual abuse is the school’s principal, the principal must give a written report about the abuse, or suspected abuse to a police officer immediately and must also give a copy of the report to a director of the school’s governing body.

The principal or a director of the school’s governing body must immediately give a copy of a report given to the principal or director to a police officer.

A report under this section must include the particulars required by s.68 of the Education (General Provisions) Regulation 2006 which are currently:-

(a) the name of the person giving the report (the first person);
(b) the student’s name and sex;
(c) details of the basis for the first person becoming aware, or reasonably suspecting, that the student has been sexually abused;
(d) details of the abuse or suspected abuse;
(e) any of the following information of which the first person is aware:-
   (i) the student’s age;
   (ii) the identity of the person who has abused, or is suspected to have abused, the student;
   (iii) the identity of anyone else who may have information about the abuse or suspected abuse.

3.7 Reporting Likely Sexual Abuse Under Education (General Provisions) Act 2006

Section 366A of the Education (General Provisions) Act 2006 states that if a staff member becomes aware, or reasonably suspects in the course of their employment at the school, that any of the following is likely to be sexually abused by another person:-
(a) a student under 18 years attending the school;
(b) a pre-preparatory aged child registered in a pre-preparatory learning program at the school;
(c) a person with a disability who:-
   (i) under s.420(2) of the Education (General Provisions) Act 2006 is being provided with special education at the school; and
   (ii) is not enrolled in the preparatory year at the school.
then the staff member must give a written report about the suspicion to the school’s principal or to a director of the school’s governing body immediately.

If the staff member who becomes aware or reasonably suspects likely sexual abuse is the school’s principal, the principal must give a written report about the suspicion to a police officer immediately and must also give a copy of the report to a director of the school’s governing body.

A report under this section must include the particulars required by s.68 of the Education (General Provisions) Regulation 2006 which are currently:-
(a) the name of the person giving the report (the first person);
(b) the student’s name and sex;
(c) details of the basis for the first person reasonably suspecting, that the student has been or is likely to be sexually abused by another person;
(d) any of the following information of which the first person is aware:-
   (i) the student’s age;
   (ii) the identity of the person who is suspected to have or be likely to abuse the student;
   (iii) the identity of anyone else who may have information about the suspected abuse or likelihood of abuse.

3.8 Reporting Harm

If a staff member is aware or reasonably suspects harm has been caused to a student who, when the harm was caused or is suspected to have been caused, was under 18 years and the harm has not been reported under preceding sections of this policy, the staff member must report the harm to the school’s principal.

If the principal is aware or reasonably suspects the harm has been caused, the principal must report the harm or suspected harm to a child safety officer in the Department of Communities (or other department administering the Child Protection Act 1999) or to a police officer.

3.9 Accessibility of Policy

This policy is accessible on the school website and will be available on request from the school administration. Each new staff member will be made aware of the policy as part of their induction and comprehensive training will be provided to all staff on an annual basis.
3.10 Awareness of Policy

Staff and students will be made aware of the policy by its display on the school website.
